To the Citizens of Gallipolis.
THE Carleton Coal Company, desiring to increase their Capital Stock, now offer to sell Eighty or Ninety Shares.
In so doing it is necessary to close up the old business; therefore we would notify all those who have claims against the Company to present them for settlement, and all those who are indebted to the Company will make payment immediately.

In calling on our patrons in this manner we do not intend to quit the trade, but we intend to enlarge our business, and prosecute it with more vigor than ever. We would notify the good people of Gallipolis, that we have procured a charter for our Company; therefore it becomes necessary for us to secure up all our old business, so we can recognize according to law. We thank the citizens of Gallipolis and vicinity for their past patronage, and solicit a continuation, and we will give you better Coal than we have before. The Company will hereafter be called the Carleton Coal Company, instead of Carltonville Coal Company.
